Northeast Ballet Company: Stories That Dance

Artists in Residence

This collaborative effort between Proctors, Northeast Ballet Company and students from three school classrooms captures the stories of talented Capital Region youth and transforms them into a spectacular full-scale production to be performed live at Proctors!

The program includes professional dancers and Artistic Director Darlene Myers of Northeast Ballet Company in the classroom for a full week of residency, in addition to a dress rehearsal with full production team at Proctors and two live performances in the Spring.

So, get your imaginations ready, and write your story!

Fees: $3000 total, including residency, rehearsal and shows. 5-day residency required.
