Schenectady-based Transfinder, a national leader in school transportation software solutions, donated $1,000 to Proctor's Education Department to help defray the cost to school districts for buses to transport students to educational programs at Proctors. The donation will districts in Schenectady County to transport students each to take advantage of one of the educational programs offered by Proctor's during the 2009-2010 school year.

Antonio Civitella, Transfinder's president & CEO, added, "Field trips to outstanding educational and arts institutions like Proctor's are a vital part of a young person's development. We are proud to help provide this experience for hundreds of Schenectady County school children."
